Deliverable I: Reflection Paper on the design build workshop DUE: Monday, March 24, 2014

Write a reflection answering the questions below (please do not answer yes or no) and analyzing all aspects of:

1. The trip and workshop (consider logistics, collaborative aspect with architecture students, PUCPR personnel and community)
2. Assess and review your contribution and behavior during the workshop and towards the completion of the project. What could you have done to enhance the experience/process and the products?
3. Discuss the value of this experience to you personally. How could the value of this experience be enhanced/how can we do it better next time?
4. Did you find the process or the product more valuable?
5. Do you think that we achieved what we set out to do?
6. Did the experience meet/exceed your expectations? Or did you not have any expectations for this trip?
7. Open - free write about your experience

Deliverable II: Visual Essay DUE Monday, March 24, 2014

Collectively we have a wealth of photos of the plaza and the activity. In particular we used Jimmy's and Ryan's camera. Generate a personal visual essay of the experience. Be ready to present this Monday. Also, bring the best photos you may have ready to share and create a larger collective visual essay of the experience.

Deliverable III: Website Update DUE Friday, March 28, 2014

All the work completed to date is not uploaded to our site

1. complete/revise and upload all the work as per the assignment briefs

Deliverable IV: self evaluation & peer review DUE Monday, March 31, 2014

Please complete a self evaluation as per the grading rubric on each assignment brief and the syllabus for me to consider in the grading process. Consider attendance and timeliness.

NOTE: The completion of Deliverables I - IV are essential to your final grade for this course. In fact, part of the instructors' decision on the final grade to be given to a student will include how seriously the student treats the completion of these deliverables. Please honestly and constructively complete all parts.
